Oui ! Yes! Si!

Today, Tuesday July 24, a beautiful sunny day, the morning liturgy, presided by Mgr Thomazeau, the retired archbishop of Montpellier who knows the Assumption well, invited us to fix our gaze on the Guide, the Good Shepherd. Did he know that Martine's mystery is the Good Shepherd? Was it a sign from the Holy Spirit? In any case, our Master and Guide has given us four sisters who have accepted, along with Martine, the mission of responsibility for the unity of the entire family. Glory to you O Lord and thanks to Sisters Marjo, Carmen, Mayi and Françoise for having said “yes” to this particular call.

During last Saturday's Vigil, the sisters who formed the preceding general Council helped us discover their mission. Each sister spoke in turn to give thanks to God for the years spent serving the Congregation: lives dedicated to caring for the body of the Congregation and for the sisters; discoveries of new horizons, different ways of doing things, of the great and small challenges, of the tremendous desire that dwells in the hearts and the projects of the Congregation. You'll find resumes of their sharing in the following pages.

This evening at vespers, after an emotionally packed day, Peruvian music helped us enter into the presence of God. The new council processed in, carrying branches that became a magnificent bouquet at the foot of the altar. The song “I have chosen you, I have established you that you may go forth and live in my life” furnished a magnificent accompaniment .

The intercessory prayer inspired by the Book of Wisdom (Wi 11,24) was particularly significant, expressing the transmission of the mission of the preceding general council to the new one, asking God to grant us wisdom. Here it is:

L'esprit du Seigneur remplit le monde, et lui, qui tient unies toutes choses, a connaissance de chaque mot.

- Sois notre unité, que nous célébrions la beauté de nos différences dans une communion heureuse.

Wisdom is an unfailing treasure, it wins friendship of God, it gives prudence and knowledge.

- Let us pray for the wisdom for each one of us, that we may understand the wisdom of God that renders service and love justice.

La Sabiduría despiega su fuerza de un extremo al otro, y todo lo administra con dulzura.

- Danos, Señor, un corazón compasivo que sepa escuchar. Que actuemos con determinación y estemos atentas a las diferencias.

La Sagesse aime tout ce qui existe et n'a de dégoût pour rien de ce qu'elle a fait.

- Donne-nous d'aimer cette Terre que tu nous donnes, d'en prendre soin et d'y vivre l'hospitalité

Let us leave room for some pictures
